Description: Built c. 1900, this two-story I-House features a wooden frame structural system that rests on brick piers. The exterior is covered in vinyl siding and the side-gabled roof is clad in pressed tin. This house features two brick chimneys. A brick chimney is located at each interior end of the roof. This house features a front facing gable with a wide band of trim that forms a pediment on the south facade. Fenestration consists of two-over-two wooden double-hung sash windows with decorative shutters. A one-story hipped porch is supported by wooden columns on the south elevation. Several additions have been appended to the north façade of the house including two gabled additions and a shed-roofed addition.
